PROFILE

I can convey my thoughts in a way that is understandable, either verbally or in writing. I am able to maintain focus on what I am doing, understand myself and the meaning of the situation that occurs in depth, and optimize existing conditions in order to obtain the best results and benefits. I can also transmit enthusiasm, optimism, and positive influence in the environment, fulfill commitments and complete responsibilities, answer questions, and draw conclusions based on data and facts. I am also able to plan and execute sequentially, influencing others to accept the thoughts expressed and involving others in achieving goals together.
